DAIRY INDUSTRY PROFESSIONALS INVITED TO MEET WITH CENTER Center for Dairy Excellence to Host Mealtime Meetings

Harrisburg, Pa. – The Center for Dairy Excellence will host five mealtime meetings across Pennsylvania to collect feedback and input on resources to direct the future of the state’s dairy industry. The center invites dairy industry professionals to participate in an informal discussion about dairy profitability and associated topics and an introduction to programs available through the center to assist dairy farmers.

“With challenges facing Pennsylvania’s dairy industry, both at the farm level and in the marketplace, we want to hear from agri-business professionals on what’s needed to support a viable industry,” said Jayne Sebright, executive director of the Center for Dairy Excellence. “We are also looking forward to sharing insight on the resources and programs available to help farms work through this period of change.”

Field representatives, nutrition consultants, lending agents and all industry representatives are invited to prepare topics which they would like to discuss, from business planning to dairy policy. Center staff members will be joined by representatives from American Dairy Association North East and agents with the Penn State Extension Dairy Team, who will speak to current trends and topics in Pennsylvania’s dairy industry.

Meetings will be hosted on the following dates:

- May 12 at 8:00 a.m., Dutchway, 649 E Lincoln Avenue, Myerstown, PA.
- May 16 at 8:00 a.m., Country Cupboard, 101 Hafer Road, Lewisburg, PA
- May 16 at 1 p.m., Riverstone Inn, 47 Leisure Drive, Towanda, PA
- May 19 at 8:00 a.m., Bird’s Nest Cafe, 113 S Richard St., Bedford, PA
- May 19 at 1 p.m., Hoss’s Steak and Sea House, 1948 Leesburg Grove City Road, PA
