Pennsylvania’s dairy farm families and related processing companies fuel strong bodies and strong communities, providing an abundant supply of rich, wholesome dairy products found locally 52 weeks out of the year.

$24,000 in economic revenue for Pennsylvania.

ONE COW = $24,000 in economic revenue for Pennsylvania.

1 GLASS = 9 ESSENTIAL NUTRIENTS for your body.

Pennsylvania’s dairy farms are the backbone of rural communities, providing a local source of fresh, wholesome milk, valuable economic revenue, good jobs, and open spaces for our natural resources.

Learn more about PA milk and how to find it at www.choosepadairy.com