

Gorrell Dairy LLC is seeking a crop production operator.

Job details:

This person needs to know planting through silage harvest, have experience with large, modern farm machinery, and have a technical mindset. Help in all operations related to producing feed stuffs for the 800 cow dairy as well as maintaining and servicing equipment that makes the farm run efficiently. Will work in a team environment, long hours in peak season, must be dedicated. Common sense along with solid crop production experience will be the right fit for that person to grow with the business.

Qualifications:

- Knowledge of gps, autosteer, precision farming
- Dedication and willingness to work long hours
- Maintenance and mechanical ability, attention to detail a must
- Some leadership and management experience a plus
- Strong communicator, self starter, motivated
- Willingness to jump in and assist when and where needed
- Experience in spraying and fertilizer application
- Experience in manure management, application Along with record keeping

Compensation: According to experience and knowledge

If interested contact Glenn: gorrelldairy@hotmail.com or 570-596-2624

Gorrell Dairy LLC is looking for a dairy herdsperson on our 800 cow dairy.

Job details:

- Monitor health of all animals
- Treat illnesses and injuries as they occur
- Monitor hoof health
- Give vaccinations and other injections
- Manage reproduction program
- Assist with calvings as needed
- Maintain health and production records in PCDart
- Work closely with veterinarian and nutritionist to insure good herd health

Qualifications:

- Must have good communication skills to interact with the rest of the team.
- Must be able to train and manage the dairy team
- Speak dairy Spanish or willing to learn
- A.I. skills or willingness to learn

Salary based on experience and qualification

If interested contact Glenn: gorrelldairy@hotmail.com or 570-596-2624